PRODUCT FROM MILL MAKES AI BREAD SAY LOCAL CONSUMERS

"CREAM OF WEST" IS BEST PATENT OF DIFFERENT BRANDS

Grocers Cancel Outside Orders and Refuse to Buy Flour Except that of Local Manufacture

HOUSEWIVES SATISFIED

Consumers will Have None Other than Cream of West

From the reports of those who have tried the different brands of flour being produced at the new mill here, the success of the establishment is almost assured. The best brand of flour being produced in the local mill is known as "Cream of the West" and this brand it is that is now being tried and will eventually be solely used by local bakers and housewives.

Farmers, who have already brought in small loads of wheat to be gisted, speak in loud praise of the quality of flour they receive. Their wives have tried the flour with marked success and several are of the opinion that the quality of bread from this flour is the best they have enjoyed in this western country. Grocers in the town have cancelled orders for flour with the West's largest and most reliable milling companies. Local flour is getting the preference and this preference is not being given because it is being produced here. It is exactly the reverse. Consumers have tried samples of Cream of the West and will have none other. The preference may have something of a novelty and experiment about it, but the test is proving successful from the start.

A favorite question on the streets for the past week has been, "Have you tried the new flour yet?" and in answer has the question been answered with the expression, "Yes, my wife made a batch the other day and the kiddies have been eating more bread and butter than they ever ate in their lives." And the man of the house, in speaking for himself says, "And I actually believe that the bread is the best the wife has made for years." All of which goes to prove that Cream of the West flour will become famous.

Cream of the West flour is one of the several patents made here. It is a grade, which, it is designed, will compete with such popular and famous brands as Five Roses, Royal Household and Robin Hood. Clear flour, although not of as good quality as Cream of the West, is also being manufactured. Next to the first patent comes the Gilt Edge brand and the baker's patent is known as Buffalo, a name, it might be said, not altogether in keeping with the quality of the flour.

WILL HAVE AUCTION SALE

A mammoth auction sale will be held at the farm of Mr. Orion Limpert, the local dairyman, on Tuesday, Jan. 22nd. Mr. Limpert will auction off everything on his premises and the sale will be held by Messrs. Bowerman & Goulet, the well known auctioneers.

severe cases of la grippe are reported about the town. The younger children, subject at this time of the year to heavy colds seem to be the worst sufferers.

DID ANY LOCAL PARTIES FIGURE ON G.T.P. LOTS?

Or Was Talk to this Effect All Bosh - Not Known Whose Tender was Taken

It is not known at this time, who is the fortunate tenderer on the five G. T. P. hotel lots, although the tenders closed on Jan. 8th. It is now said and the saying may be correct, that not more than one, if anyone, from this town, put in a tender on these valuable lots. It was understood all along that at least two local parties were interested in the purchase of them.

FARMER MADE $16 ON HIS WHEAT BY HAVING IT GROUND

Calculated that Now Flour Mill is Worth $180,000 to this Community Yearly

A striking feature in connection with what the farmers of this community stand to gain by having a flour mill in this town was shown on the first day the mill was opened and the first man to do business with the establishment was Mr. James Kinney, of Edmonton, who is not with in this story.

Mr. Kinney who brought fifty-three bushels of wheat from a distance of nearly thirty miles, was the first man to have his wheat ground by Messrs. G. E. Bird & Co. At the elevator he could have secured fifty-five cents a bushel, or a total of $29. for his load. But rather than do this he took it to the flour mill. From these fifty-three bushels, he secured 1520 lbs. of patent flour, valued at 23 cents a pound. This totaled $41.80. He also took back with him 250 lbs. of clear flour, worth $3.10, together with 700 lbs. of bran, 410 of shorts and 200 of screenings. The bran, shorts and screenings were worth $11.25. He paid $9.00 to the millers for their work and how did he stand as a result of having his wheat made into flour?

It is easily figured out and the most careless farmer in the country cannot fail to see where he stands to gain. Mr. Kinney might have taken $29.15 for his grain at the elevator. He did not do it, but took it to the mill and secured $56.15 for the same grain, $25.00 more than he could have sold it for direct. Out of this $56.15, he paid the millers $9.00 and had a net profit on his load, over and above what he could have got for it in the first place, of $16.00.

The average farmer in this vicinity raises (for argument's sake let us say) 1,000 bushels of wheat a year. If on 53 bushels he gains $16.00, from the fact that a flour mill is available, on 1,000 bushels he must gain $305. Say that 600 farmers are in this district. What is the result? The flour mill is then worth, in increased net profits to the community, no less than $180,000, annually.

This argument is more than mere theory, for it is being exemplified at the present time by practical farmers who practice practical methods.

A player piano will be installed at the Palace Pool Rooms in the near future. One of these was installed in the old pool room by Mr. Harry French and proved extremely popular.

BORN—On Tuesday, January 14th, to Mr. and Mrs. Price Tester, a daughter.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR SHOWS HOW READILY LAND IN PARK WOULD BE FILED ON

Instead of Reading 44-7W8
Notice Read 44-7 W4
and Something Started

On another page of this issue, a notice from the Department of the Interior is printed, giving the township, range and section of all available homesteads in lands to be thrown open for entry. The majority of these are west of the 4th meridian, while two of them, these being 44-7 and 48-10, are west of the 5th meridian. A typographical error occurred last week and instead of stating that these particular townships were west of the 5th, they were printed as being west of the 4th.

Township 44, range 7, west of the 4th, lies in the Buffalo Park and since the appearance of the last issue of the Star, the local land office has been besieged by farmers and others who had read the advertisement. Enquiries were made and each applicant wished certain quarter sections in township 44 range 7, reserved. Land Agent McLeod knew nothing of throwing open of these quarter sections and communicated with headquarters at Edmonton, where it was found that the error had been made in the setting up of the advertisement. This particular township is across the G.T.P. line a distance of about 100 miles from the park. Farmers, who reside in that locality, state that the land in 44-7 cannot be excelled and that a homestead in that township would be very valuable. The effort on the part of interested parties was natural. They were of the opinion that the agitation to throw open the Buffalo park had been successful and no less than sixty applicants presented themselves at the local land office to make entry for these advertised lands.

Although a typographical error is always to be regretted the interesting features, which have followed this particular one, go to prove the manner in which the announcement of the Buffalo park removal would be received. It is safe to say that every resident of the entire countryside would either file, or make application for a purchased homestead.

ATTENDED VIKING DANCE
A party of young people from this town were in attendance at the Viking dance held at the Viking dance hall at the party were, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Covey, Miss Nellie Davis, Carl Isted, Ernie Davey and others. The dance was held on the occasion of the hockey match between Viking and Wainwright, which failed to come off.

AT BARGAIN PRICES

The attention of our readers is called to the back page of this issue, where a full page advertisement from Mr. C. T. Lally appears. Read the ad carefully. Many bargains will be found therein and at prices within reach of everyone.

It was reported in town last week that the old Star office had been sold as a real estate office for the South Wainwright people. Mr. W. J. Munson, the owner, however, denies the report.

IMPROVEMENTS SURE TO FOLLOW STATES SUBDIVISION MANAGER

While here last week, Mr. J. E. McCormack, of the National Townsite & Colonization Co., gave an outline of the work to be started next spring in South Wainwright. It is certain that at least ten houses will be erected, streets graded and sidewalks placed. Several have already been leased by local parties, who intend residing in that locality.

FANCY DRESS CARNIVAL PROVED BIG SUCCESS ANOTHER WILL BE HELD

Miss Winnie Isted in Costume, Representing "Wainwright" Star Captured Prize in Ladies' Class

Despite the frosty evening and the fact that short notice was given in which to prepare for the affair, the fancy dress carnival which was held in the local rink on Friday evening last, proved highly successful. So successful did it prove, that the management is now decided to hold another carnival on the evening of a Valentine's Day, February 14th.

It was estimated that at least one hundred skaters appeared on the ice in costume, many of the costumes proving of an elaborate nature. The judging was without doubt the best yet for errors of judgement at carnivals and fancy dress balls have been very much in evidence. In this case, however, the judges followed a strict and safe line, giving points for originality of costume and selecting for winners those who had practised the art of "make up", ignoring those wearing the hideous and ghost like masks.

The costumes on the whole were disappointing and, with few exceptions, lacked finish. For some insane reason, the competitors will persist in wearing unsightly masks. A lady in a pretty Japanese costume threw away her chances of winning a prize by masking her pink cheeks and bright eyes. The clowns in the comic class lacked detail. The big, white, felt hat, the large ruffles around the neck, hands and feet and the white gloves, with long fingers, were not there. The hobo character was overdone and the makeup was very crude.

The management on the ice was poor. In fact, there was no management about it. Instructions were shouted through a megaphone but no one took the slightest notice of them. If the ice had been cleared for competition, it would have saved confusion and given the competitors a better show.

Miss Winnie Isted won first prize for best dressed lady. There was novelty in her getup, representing the "Wainwright Star". The Star of Wainwright would also have been an appropriate title. In this instance it might also be mentioned that Misses Inge Peterson and Mabel Carbert were also dressed in costumes of a dainty nature, representing the Wainwright Star. Mr. Fred Pawling won the gentlemen's prize as the "Brigand". His dress and general effect were picturesque. Miss Sims and Mr. L. Girard won as the best dressed couple. They were dressed in Scotch costumes and stepped on the ice perfect in every detail. The Dutch couple looked cute and won the children's prize. Master Walter King won the children's prize with a Welsh Herald costume. Jack St. Pierre, of Chauvin, won in the comic class with his funny makeup and antics.

PROMOTERS ARE HERE SEEKING FRANCHISE FOR ELECTRIC LIGHTING PLANT

To Meet Mayor and Council
At Special Meeting
Being Held
Tonight

It is now up to the town council to say whether or not Wainwright will have electric lights, for the promoters of a plant are in town today, investigating the advisability of installing a dynamo of seventy-five kilowatts capacity. Concessions from the town in the way of a franchise and free site and trackage will be asked at a meeting of the council arranged for tonight.

The men behind the scheme hail from Edmonton and both have had an extensive experience in this line of construction and work. Mr. H. A. McCormack, who is one of the enterprising young men of the firm, worked for some time in Ottawa where he obtained a wide experience. His partner, Mr. P. F. Tompkins, is also a practical man and is in town with Mr. McCormack.

Investigation so far has gone to show that the town can use at least eighteen hundred, sixteen candle power lights, with the prospect of several hundred more. The estimated cost is $25,000, providing that a plant, known as the "A.C." plant can be installed and used. This would ensure a continuous service and provide for a day load. Consumers of electricity could then secure "juice" during the day and ensure power for motors at all times.

The proposition in detail will be laid before the Mayor and Council to-night and at this time Mayor Lally and Conne Snyder, Chairman of Fire, Water and Light, are inclined to view the matter favourably, but desire the proposals fully explained before any decisive steps are taken.

MEETING IN NEW TOWN HALL

The next meeting of the town council will be held in the new town hall which is now complete and ready for occupancy. Ample space for the public will be available and it is not probable that meetings of the civic administrators will be transacted with out more or less of an audience. The council will meet for the second time this year on Tuesday night next.

NEW FIRE CHIEF APPOINTED

At a meeting of members of the fire brigade held on Friday evening last, Robert Kenny was appointed fire chief to succeed Mr. John Lewis who resigned on his removal from this town to Transcona. Another meeting of the brigade is called for Friday evening of this week when matters of importance will be dealt with. A full meeting is requested.

IS HOCKEY SEASON OVER?

Is the hockey season, so far as the G. T. P. Amateur League is concerned at an end? The fact, that no team representing this town, went to Viking to play scheduled game yesterday would indicate as much. The real cause is said to lie in the fact that certain friction has existed between the G. T. P. players and the town-boys, which has resulted in the deadlock in evidence yesterday.

NEW PRESIDENT BOARD TRADE REGRETTED NOT BEING ABLE TO DISPOSE OF MORE OF BUFFALO

Eating Buffalo Steak Not Fast Enough Way to Dispose of Buffalo Declared A. E. Mills at Banquet Following Board of Trade Election

New officers and committees are now at the helm of affairs, in all work connected with the board of trade, for on Wednesday evening last President James, Vice-President N. E. Cook and Secretary H. C. King laid down their duties of office after serving the town during 1912. The meeting at which officers were elected for 1913 was poorly attended, not more than a mere handful of businessmen and citizens turning out.

The annual financial statement of receipts and expenditures was submitted by Secretary King, after which the meeting was opened for nomination for board of trade officers. The retiring officers clearly defined their reasons why they did not wish to be renominated, and in this instance, the retiring secretary, who has ably filled office for the past three years, was pressed to stand for another year. Mr. King refused to do this and the elections were proceeded with. The result was as follows: President, A. E. Mills; Vice-President, E. N. C. Tanguay; Secretary, J. C. Shirley; Executive, P. W. Deveson, J. F. Dieffenbach, G. L. Hudson, George A. Smith, O. J. Elder.

After the meeting was dispensed with, local businessmen and in greater number than they attended the election of officers gathered around the festive boards at the Park Hotel and enjoyed the most successful banquet in the town's brief history. The guests included Mr. F. T. Fisher, secretary of the Edmonton board of trade and Mr. J. E. McCormack, of the National Townsite Company, of Winnipeg. Buffalo steak and seven other courses were dealt with in a manner after the nature of those whose appetites were the most ravenous. Retiring Vice-President N. E. Cook acted as Toastmaster and after the health of King George was drunk, the retiring President's report was submitted by Mr. S. E. James, who gave a pleasing address of the year's work. Mr. James was followed by Secretary King, who, in his usual affable style, spoke of the good work the 1912 board had carried on. Secretary Fisher, was then called upon to reply to "Publicity Work in a Small City." Mr. Fisher's remarks were of the kind that assist a board of trade in a town of Wainwright's dimensions. An experienced man in publicity work and having a thorough knowledge of all the fine points of the "game", Mr. Fisher imparted information to the newly elected officers, which should stand them in good stead.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND

On Sunday next the services at the St. Thomas Church of England will be as follows:— 11 A. M., Confirmation service and Holy Communion. Sunday School 2.30. Evening service at 7.30. The preacher throughout the day will be the Rt. Rev. J. A. Newham, D. D., Bishop of Saskatchewan. Anyone desiring interviews with the Bishop will kindly let the Incumbent know before Sunday so that arrangements may be made to the best advantage of the Bishop's time.

At such a rapid rate is the subscription list of the Star increasing, for the circulation is close to the thousand mark, that it has become necessary to cut off all delinquent subscribers. Notices of expired subscriptions have been sent out and will be received in due time, and, after the expiration of two weeks, names, regardless of person or persons, will be struck off the lists.

FACTORY GROWTH WESTERN CANADA

Remarkable Increase in Manufactures as Shown by the Census Figures of the Past Ten Years

While the figures of the census of the manufactures of Canada, 1911, reflect with emphasis the extraordinary industrial development of Canada during the past decade, particularly in the five years following 1905, the most surprising and gratifying growth is seen in the great lakes, in the three prairie provinces, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Manitoba has made great strides industrially since 1905, while the other two provinces particularly Alberta, have also made greater progress in manufactures since 1905 than before that. Here is the story:

MANITOBA
(1910 Compared with 1905)
Establishments: Increase ..... 24%
Capital: Increase ..... 74%
Employees: Increase ..... 70%
Salaries and wages: Increase ..... 104%
Value of Products: Increase ..... 99%

SASKATCHEWAN
(1910 compared with 1905)
Establishments: Increase ..... 116%
Capital: Increase ..... 77%
Employees: Increase ..... 125%
Salaries and wages: Increase ..... 175%
Value of Products: Increase ..... 151%

ALBERTA
(1910 Compared with 1905)
Establishments: Increase ..... 143%
Capital: Increase ..... 132%
Employees: Increase ..... 211%
Salaries and wages: Increase ..... 265%
Value of products: Increase ..... 266%
Increase in a five year period that exceed 100 per cent. show phenomenal development, but when they exceed two hundred per cent. there is surely a progress which will attract the eyes of the world. Moreover manufacturing in the West is as yet but in early infancy, and it does not require any stretch of imagination to see in the near future tall chimneys, busy worksheds, and an army of workers in thriving populous centres throughout the West.

The increase in manufactures in the three prairie provinces during the two periods 1900 and 1905, and 1905 to 1910 was as follows:

MANITOBA
1900 1905 1910
Establishments: 324 354 439
Capital: $2,339,071 $27,017,297 $47,941,540
Employees: 5,219 10,333 17,325
Salaries and Wages: $2,419,549 $5,909,971 $10,912,866
Value of Products: $12,347,489 $28,166,722 $52,973,909

In the year 1909, the manufactures of Alberta and Saskatchewan were responsible for the increase in the three prairie provinces. The figures in the table show that the increase in the three prairie provinces was greater by far than the combined totals for the two provinces in 1900.

SASKATCHEWAN
1905 1910

Here is a statement which shows the development in the West since 1900
compared with the whole of Canada:

WAINWRIGHT ALTA., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15 1913

"WAINWRIGHT, the town which raised such a storm when they heard the Buffalo Park was going to be moved, are now asking the Dominion Government, to take the Bisons away. 'Consistency, then art a jewel.' In such a manner does the Edmonton Capital, in a recent issue, comment on the removal of the buffalo from this town.

The glit remarks of the Capital introduce another sidelight, which bears directly on the situation. This particular feature of the case has been dealt with through these columns on a previous occasion, but the real facts were not at hand at that time. It now appears that in the beginning the few pioneers, who were then stationed in this community, had absolutely nothing to say in regard to the buffalo park and it is a common belief that when the press throughout the civilized world made the announcement in regard to purchasing the animals they were not aware of the fact that Wainwright had been selected as their future home. The scheme to transport the Pablo herd from the Flathead Reservation was started at Ottawa and at Ottawa it was decided where the National Reserve should be. This was in the beginning when but a few settlers had assembled in the vicinity of this town and when the number was not sufficient to offer any strong protest to the imposition.

Briefly the Capital says that the people around Wainwright raised a storm when the hint was thrown out that the Buffalo Park would be moved. When this really was, the STAR is not in a position to say, and believes that no such announcement was ever made. So far as the people of the town were concerned, it is definitely known that cause for raising a storm over the removal of the park was never given. Feeling in the town has not changed, for even the admirers of the buffalo park have nursed the inward conviction that the animals would be better off of the way. In a sense they do not wish to see the landmarks removed, but for the good of the community at large would not sorrow prolongedly in the event of such a move being made.

The STAR has taken a straw vote locally of the number for and against the removal of the buffalo park and finds that the former number more than five times the latter. This will give some idea as to how the situation is looked upon locally. The agitation for the removal of the animals has but begun, for just so long as the park remains as a hindrance to the progress and development of the town and community, so long will this matter be a live question and one worthy of serious consideration. Although living in an age of mental enlightenment, federal authorities have failed to make a move either one way or the other regarding this important matter, and before it becomes a political question of grave importance some action should be taken by the administration at Ottawa.

WESTERN Canadian newspapers have already begun to advise the farmers to have their seeds tested for germination purposes and it would ill behoove the STAR to remain silent and not join with the others in this important matter. It is safe to say that thousands of dollars were saved in this district last year, from the fact that seed wheat, oats and other grains were given a thorough and preliminary test. The seed testing laboratories in Calgary have already begun to receive samples of grain and farmers in this locality would do well to bear in mind that for no charge, whatsoever, their grain will be tested.

ALTHOUGH characterized by a certain amount of enthusiasm, the public meeting last week, which was held for the purpose of electing officers and executive committeemen for the 1913 board of trade, proved somewhat of a failure and the ultimate choice of representatives was not as strong an aggregation as the retiring officers expected to see; the main weakness lying in the fact that several of the newly elected representatives have not had previous experience in board of trade work. There was a reason, however, why these men were chosen. In the first place they showed their willingness to play their part in the town's development. Secondly, they were public spirited enough to attend a meeting, which, it was obvious, was important.

Local businessmen, and in fact all citizens who did not attend, showed their lack of interest in what has been recognized for two years past as an important body of willing workers; not workers from a selfish standpoint by any means, but from a source, the underlying principals of which, each and every loyal citizen should have, the good and welfare and the advancement of Wainwright as a whole. By failing to attend this meeting, members of the board of trade, or whom the officers depend for support, showed listlessness in matters pertaining to the future. Surely the time has not arrived when a more handful of citizens must be depended on to carry on board of trade work. Interest has not been lacking for the past two years. In a trice, however, this general enthusiasm has apparently died out with the election of new officers to continue the good work of keeping Wainwright before the world. Why should this be? Is Wainwright to be eventually left without a board of trade?

In this age of town competition, and especially in respect to western towns, it is absolutely necessary that the board of trade should be a live body. With lack of support, however, Wainwright's organization must become dormant and finally cease to exist. Do local businessmen and citizens wish to see this come to pass? Surely not, if the past is any indication of what an important part the local board of trade plays in town development. Without support, the newly elected officers can not carry on their work and, after their official demise, the epitaph of lack of support will not be written in very creditable language.

NEW realize the importance, attached to the opening of the opening of the new flour mill and the part it will play in the progress of the town as a whole. Already the town is beginning to draw trade from remote points and from farmers who reside east of Edmonton. Grain-growers, who have already done business at the local mill, have passed along the good news to their neighbors, who in turn will transmit the glad tidings to inhabitants of the whole countryside. Here they are able to secure a high price for their wheat or have a portion of it ground and thereby secure, at the expense of the millers, their year's supply of flour. The real value of the mill to this community is fast becoming evident. The machinery has been turning for but two weeks, yet, during that time, a large number of satisfied customers has been made. The good news will travel to greater distances and the ultimate result will prove profitable to the town's interests. If the satisfactory manner in which farmers are being treated continues, all trails within a radius of fifty miles will lead toward Wainwright.

Does not buy his lumber on the basis of price only. He realizes that it is not so much what he pays, but what he gets for what he pays, that counts.

As one of our customers remarked the other day the first cost is not the last cost.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR

On Wednesday, January 1st, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Reid, at the corner of King St. and 7th Avenue, when her eldest daughter, Pearl, was united in marriage to Mr. Theodore Carbert, of Edmonton, but formerly of this town, by Rev. Thos. Philips.

The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her uncle, Mr. E. A. Deyell, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Philips. Miss Ethel Carbert, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. A. D. Ferguson supported the groom. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream silk chiffon, over pale blue silk, trimmed with cream point Duchesse lace and silver fringe and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and lilies of the valley. The groom wore conventional black.

The numerous presents of cut glass, silver and other costly gifts mark the esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and fob, set with amethysts, to the bridesmaid a jewel case and to the groomsmen a gold stick pin with pearl settings.

After the ceremony, the guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Philips and replied to in a very pleasing manner by the groom. Many were the good wishes expressed by the guests. After the social hour, very pleasantly spent, the happy couple left for Edmonton, where they will reside.

All local friends and acquaintances unite in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Carbert many years of happiness and a pleasant journey through life.

A meeting of the fire brigade is called for Friday evening and all interested in the protection of the town receives from this body of men are requested to attend in the chamber of the fire hall.

Mr. John Brown of the G. H. Beaudry Co. Meat Market, won the suit of clothes in the weekly draw at the G. H. Beaudry Co. & Bisson's weekly contest on Saturday evening last.

Mr. S. E. James, manager of the Merchants Bank here, is a visitor, Winnipeg, this week. While in that city, Mr. James had the pleasure of seeing the world famous actress, Madame Sarah Bernhardt.

A special issue of the San Diego State has been received at this office from Mr. W. V. Carter, formerly of this town. The edition is a large one, and our thanks for its receipt are due Mr. Carter.

Mr. C. E. Bird, of Minneapolis, Minn., whose dealings with the board of trade and town council resulted in the establishment of the present flour mill, is expected to arrive here this week. Mr. Bird has many friends here who will welcome his return.
